DEAR the great Hungarian statesman in dead.

BANK robbery seems to be becoming almost as regular a trade as bankruptcy.

CANFIELD has no dentist and is down in the mouth.- Exchange. Can't she set her teeth against it, or gum it?

IF President Grant were to turn out his family relations quite a number of deserving Union soldiers could get a place.

Ir Jeff. Davis should die Blaine and his "bloody shirt" friends in Congress and the war organs over the country would be in a bad way for something to rave about.

SENATOR SHERMAN seems to be a Hayes man. It is modesty that is the matter with Sherman'-Ex

Ex Governor Francis Thomas of Maryland, while walking on the railway track last week was hit by a train and thrown a considerable distance and killed. His age was 71 years.

ELIHU BURRITT is out in a letter demanding a reduction of the army and navy establishments of the United States. He asks, "Shall the back of the sword devour forever?"

SHERMAN'S letter urging Hayes for President is said to be specially directed against "bloody shirt" Morton's candidacy. Morton's friends say it is "spite work." It is said though to please YES; we voted for David Tod and "hard money" in 1846.-Ohio Democrat. Yes, and Horace Greeley and the Constitutional currency in 1872. Why go so far back? No dodging, Major of the 80th.

This time the lost boy Charlie Ross is at the Wyandot county Infirmary in this State. Two men left him for a day or two last Summer with Mrs. Beebe and did not return, and after a time she placed the boy in the Infirmary.

GARPIELD is said to be working in the interest of Blaine for the Presidency, and to have recently sent an emissary to sound the Republican members of the Ohio Assembly. It is further reported that he met with substantial encouragement.

THE Akron Argus thinks Mr. Blaine "made a very unwise speech on the Amnesty bill." The Argus thinks "the speech was uncalled for under existing circumstances" and that "it would have served a far better purpose if Mr. Blaine had left untouched and unpictured the prisons."

THE Stark County DEMOCRAT is the hardest kind of a "hard money" paper. It is said that its proprietor recently made an assignment. Was it intended like the drunken temperance lecturer's conduct, to "set the fearful example?"-

Steubenville Gazette. The Stark County Democrat is the "hardest kind" of a Democratic paper, and always carried the flag full mast high without thinking of a surrender-A. McGregor is still editor of the paper, and expects to continue, unless some one proffers money enough to induce a change. At all events "we still live,"

THE SOLDIER CARED FOR.

Wm. Palmer of Licking county, the one-legged soldier whom the Republicans requested to take a back seat in order that an able-bodied colored gentleman might have an office, has been cared for. Notwithstanding the fact that the gentleman is a Republican, the Democrats, in order to show their sincerity in the matter, immediately set about to procure him a place, and this morning Mr. Palmer entered upon duty as one of the guards in the Penitentiary.

WE don't see the name of Judge Ambler in the list of appointments for the Supreme Court Commission, Will somebody tell him that Joe Gillespie is running a newspaper?—Alliance Review.

Cannot neighbor Bascom read his contemporary at Alliance a lecture? Can it be true, as intimated, that "Joe Gillespie and his Newspaper" had any more to do than the man in the moon with preventing Governor Hayes from appointing Judge Ambler on the Commission? Joe Gillespie would evidently like to have people think that he and his "newspaper" have influence in the party.

THE RETURN TO ECONOMY IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

The Democratic members of the House at Washington have a difficult task before them in the work they have so zealously engaged in, namely to reform and economize. In this good work the members have no co-operative help from the Departments. Instead of aid every possible obstacle is thrown in their way. In the bill, for example, cutting down the expenditures for West Point Academy, the Republican members opposed, the Professors opposed, and, in fact, the whole power of the Administration, it would seem was hostile to the reduction. Saving has not been popular with the party in power.

For fifteen years have misrule, exravagance and corruption been holding high carnival in every branch of the General Government. The abuses have become chronic and the contest over effecting a change in the system and returning to honest and economic practices, will be bitter and the work laborious and difficult,

The net expenditures for the last fiscal year, exclusive of interest on the public debt, are reported by the Secretar, of the Treasury to be $171,528,848.27. They are comprised under the heads of war, navy, Indians, pensions, and miscellaneons. To reduce the appropriations for these various branches intelligently and properly, it is necessary to examine in detail the items of which each, is made up, and to search out the abuses. All must see the labor involved-especially when the Departments are hostile. In addition to all this, each interest has its friends and advocates at Washington, and powerful combinations are made and appeals made to members in every shape to spare their particular interest. We are glad to believe that the Democratic majority of the House are resolved on retrenchment and that is why they are taking time on these appropriation bills We say inaugurate a new system, wipe out the old, corrupt and extravagant practices, and relieve the people from time. And, let it come.

THE Stark County DEMOCRAT having charged the editor of the Ohio Democra with being formerly in favor of "hard money" the latter defines his position in the following terse language: "Yes, we voted for David Tod and "hard money" in 1846; but what has that got to do with the situation now? We support the Ohio Democratic platform of 1875, (because it appeals to reason and common sense) until it is revoked. Does not, why not.

Our neighbor of the Democrat shoots o near the centre that we would be pleased to hear either Senator Thurman or the Stark county man "rise up and explain" their reason for differing with him-if they can. - Steubenville Guzett .

"Differing with him!" These gentlemen seem very anxious to get up a "differing" in the party. We advise them to get back to "reason and common sense" and stay there whether "revoked" or not. In fact "common sense and reason" cannot be revoked, not even by the spirits at New Philadelphia and Steubenville.

The Democratic party of the Union is not revoking "reason and common sense" and the Constitution of the United States, even to please our excellent friends of the Gazette and Ohio Democrat. We kindly advise them to stop their fooling and fall into line and aid us in redeeming Ohio next fall and electing a Democratic President.

RASCALITY ran riot last week. To s y nothing of small fry we may recount a few prominent robberies and defalcations. The "Rev." Winslow, of Boston, only stole six hundred thousand dollars; the New Brunswick cashier only "conveyed" a hundred and forty thousand dollars; the robbers at Northampton only obtained six hundred and seventy thousand dollars! Such are specimens in the calendar of crime; and the respectability of the criminals is a startling feature. Winslow was a minister of the gospel, formerly published a religious paper, and of late was manager of the Boston Post. He responded happily to the toast, "Original Sin," at the annual dinner of the Athenian Club in Boston on New Year's day. He added forgery to his thieving and with his wife and family went to Holland. Truly this is an horrors of Andersonville and Libby era of cupidity and crime. Mammon crops out in our legislation and in high places dwell its votaries.

THE Republican members of the House at Columbus were in trouble last week. They repealed the Geghan, religious liberty, law in hot haste, but the ghost has been troubling them ever since. It seems that in amending their Penitentiary bill they got into a family fight over the late Geghan law. It was offered by Hitchcock of Geauga, and adopted, the Democratic members assisting of course. The happy family was greatly disturbed and an extra caucus was called, where, after a high time, they determined to repeal the Hitchcock amendment. They may not be through with the Geghan ghost yet. Full liberty of conscience is a sacred principle in our system.

THE Chillicothe Post, the Steabenville Gazette, the Lebanon Patriot, and the Ohio Democrat, are opposed to Thurman's nomination by the Democrats for President. The Chillicothe Post says that it don't believe that the Senator can carry Ohio, but exclaims: "William Allen-God bless the brave and honest old Roman! —or George H. Pendleton, or General Tom Ewing could carry Ohio." The Post is enthusiastic, to say the least.—Plain

We hope our prophetic friends would not labor to verify their prophecy. Usually, in such cases, "the wish is father to the thought," and the prophet labors to have his prophetic blast come true,

HENRY CLAY DEAN, one of the most eloquent speakers now living in the United States, seems to be working his way back to the polpit. He recently delivered two powerful sermons in the Methodist church at Oskoloosa, Ia., one of which was upon "The Great Question of Causation," in which he affirmed that God by a direct act, created the heavens and the earth, and at the end of the service a decided revival influence was felt.

McGregor, in pleading for his rebel Democratic brethren of the South, and for amnesty and peace, asks:

"Shall we not have a fair start in this centennial year of grace?"

How long is it since the Democrati ceased to harp about the blue light Federalists, the Hartford conventionists, the Abolitionists, &c.? They are regular old Bourbons, who never forget, and never learn anything. Now, the party that contained all the traitors, all the men that for four years tried to destroy the Government and the Union, who were guilty of all the atrocities of Libby and Andersonville, is complaining because the loyal people of the nation cannot, and will not forget all these things in ten years from the time they were committed.

No, sir! the American people have forgiven the rebels, and have taken them back into the family, but they can never forget the past. That has gone into the history of the Republic, and cannot be erased. It should stand forever as a warning and a rebuke to the enemies of our country. Cicero held up the treason of Cataline to posterity. Why should these modern traitors ask to be forgotten?—Bascom's Repository.

Senator Sumner sends from the grave this protest. Note the contrast:

"I am for peace in reality as in name From the bottom of my heart I am for peace; and I welcome all which makes for peace. With deep felt satisfaction I remember that no citizen who drew his sword against us has suffered by the hand of the executioner. In just asso-ciation with this humanity will be the triumph of equal rights, when the prom ises of the great declaration are fulfilled, and our people are united as never before in the enduring fellowship of com-mon citizenship. To this end there must be reconciliation. Nor can I withhold my hand. I freely accept the hand that offered, and reach forth my own in friendly grasp. I am against the policy of hate. I am against fanning ancient flames into continued life. I am against raking in the ashes of the past for coals of fire yet burning. Pile up the ashes, extinguish the flames, abolish the hate, is my desire."

We could not improve on these noble entiments. We would merely ask neighbor Bascom, if he recognizes the last great Senator from Massachusetts as having been a "loyal" man? Horace Greeley entertained and expressed similar views. The Republican party seems not these enormous exactions. It is high to be blessed with such men these days, to any great extent.

Or the bill which passed the House on Wednesday of last week reducing postage upon mail matter of the third-class from one cent per ounce to one-half cent per ounce, the weight of packages to be limited as at present, to four pounds, a correspondent says: "The third class embraces transient newspapers and periodi-Judge Thurman and our friend of the cals as well as seeds and merchandise, Stark County Democrat do so? And if The Post Office Department favored the reduction upon newspapers and similar printed matter, but recommended that the postage upon articles of merchandise be graduated according to the distance which the packages were to be carried. In other words, that for distances within three hundred miles, onecent postage for each ounce up to four held by the Department, would to some in the cost of transportation of merchandise in the mails, it being demonstrated that in the past year over $4,000,000 deficit in the postal accounts was occasioned by the cost of transporting third-class mail in excess of the revenues therefrom, and that over $1,000,000 will probably be added to the cost by the bill which passed to-day; therefore, a determined effort will be made to amend the bill when it comes before the Senate."

> THE Democratic party in the National House of Representatives have formally identified their cause with that of Jeffer son Davis .- Cleveland Herald. The Democratic members of the House did not contemplate Jefferson Davis They desired complete amnesty, alluding to no one, the only aim being in this Centennial year to have a fully restored Union and commence a new era of peace and good will. This was the object and the sole object. Mr. Blaine moved to except Jefferson Davis from the amnesty thus throwing in the old apple of discord, trying to revive the foolish venom and hate of the war. It was Mr. Blaine and Company who are responsible for the introduction at this time of Jefferson Davis and sectional hate. Really, is it not time to cease this stirring up of hate and animosity? Do "let us have peace." "The wisest and most patriotic members of both the great political parties have urged the importance of reconciliation; recognizing the fact that the war is over and its bitter memories buried; of looking toward the future with patriotic desire and fraternal feeling, and not on the past with sectional and malignant hatred."

An exchange thus hits the living issue: The question of questions before this Congress is retrenchment and reform. It comes home to every man's fireside, and applies with equal force to the great operations of the Government. All the elections for two years past have greatly turned upon that issue, and the Democrats are largely indebted for their present majority to its advocacy. The Committee on Appropriations will do well to make haste slowly and to guard every point as they go on. The country is with them."

MR. MORRISON from the Committee of Ways and Means in the House has reported a new tariff bill. It should lower duties to something like a revenue tariff. The average reduction will be about 17 per cent. The bill also restores the 12 cents per pound on tea, and 3 cents per pound on coffee. It includes no tax on incomes or any other internal revenue

THE Toledo Blade drops this gentle bit of advice at the door of our worthless

Republican Legislature: "The Legislature has now been in session nearly thirty days—about one-half of the time in which it was hoped that body might beable to complete its work -and the outlook is not entirely favora-ble for an early adjournment."

THE essential underlying element in good government is Justice; and this includes equality of rights, and necessarily involves economy of administration. As far as a written fundamental law could secure this, our Constitution, constituting a government, does. Even under a good Constitution and admirable form of just government, bad and corrupt men may give a people the worst rule possible, and inflict them with all manner of evil.

For forms of government let fools contest, That which is best administered, is best, The selfishness and grasping greed of men in power lead to the enacting of all manner of schemes looking to the disturbance of values and consequent fortune to them and their friends. Even in these schemes the short-sightedness of men becomes apparent. They sometimes sow the wind and reap the whirlwind! An evil system of scheming legislation, eventually works out evil to an afflicted land; and the people obtain wisdom in the dear school of experience, but too late to avoid sad results. The terrible ordeal through which the people of this country are passing now should induce all to examine the past and ascertain the causes that have produced these results. In so doing they will find that the causes lie in the vicious legislation of the past, regardless of the rights of person and property and wholly regardless of justice and economy. The requirements of the Constitution have been ignored, and even now, the leaders of the party in power propose no material change in their policy. Indeed, they justify all their high handed acts and approve their doings that have landed the country into Harper's Weekly says nothing "should cause any man to forget that the Demo-cratic party is now what it has been for many years-the political organization of those who aimed to destroy the National Union and Government for the basest and most revolting of purposes, and who still declare that their views, except as to the practibility of secession, remain unchanged .- Radical Exchange.

These are the usual ravings of the Grant crooked whisky organs. With this and stirring up religious animosity they hope to carry the Presidential election, notwithstanding their crimes of malfeasance in office and mal-administration in all directions. We know of no country in modern times so deplorably misgoverned and robbed as ours under Republican rule. The Democratic party at least gave the country honest and economical Administration of public affairs. And that is more than Harper's Weekly or any of that ilk can say with truth for their party's rule.

"It may be many years before the baneful influence of the last twelve years of Radical rule will be entirely overcome We have a hope, however, that the old teachings of Democratic sages and the beneficent example they furnished in sixty years of economical, honorable and successful rule, may yet assert thempounds and less than 600 miles one cent; selves, and that the country will not forfor 600 and less than 1,500 miles, one ever be humiliated and made ashamed and a half cent, and for all over 1,500 by the constant recurrence of defalcamiles, two cents per ounce. This, it is tions, thieving legislation, and frauds of all sorts upon the public revenue. We extent save the Government from loss trust the day will yet come when we shall not daily be mortified with the arrest and conviction of some new public agent, a dear friend perhaps of the President, or some of his Cabinet, and a prime leader of the party in power."

> "AMNESTY FOR ALL" is the title the Hon, S. S. Cox gives to his pamphlet copy of his late speech in reply to Biaine's tirade of hate. Mr. Cox gives the following extracts on the cover and title page. They are to the point :

> " Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another. * * Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."-St. Paul to the Ephesians.

"Humor not the injustice of revenge."
—Sir Thomas Browns

"The anodyne draught of oblivion thus drugged is well calculated to preserve a galling wakefulness, and to feed the living ulcer of a corroding memory. Thus to administer the opiate portion of amnesty, powdered with all the ingredients of scorn and contempt, is to hold to the lips the cup of human misery full to the brim, and to force it to the dregs."-Edmund Burke. We are thankful to Mr. Cox for favoring us with a copy.

THE Stark County DEMOCRAT stigmatizes the charges against Jeff. Davis as stuff" and "twaddle." We believe that the Democrat always did have a warm side for Jeff, and no one is surprised that it thinks he is innocent of any crime against the Government,-Alliance Re-

Not as "warm" as that "loyal" man and leading Republicas, Gen. B. F. Butler, who voted thirty-six times in the Convention at Charleston in 1860 to make Jeff. Davis the Democratic candidate for President! Nor, have we as "warm a side" for J. D. as Grant and the Republican party leaders have for Longstreet, Mosby, &c., &c. The fact is the "warm side" business varies from time to time in both shape and color. Consider, neighbor Joseph, consider.

Snow Flake Flouring Mills For Sale.

Owing to the ill hearth of the Senior member of our firm, we offer for sale our Steam Flouring Mills. The building is of brick with five pairs of burs, and all the machinery necessary for a first burs, and all the machinery necessary for a first-class mill. The property is conveniently located, near the Railroad Depot, in the city of Canton. We have a large home trade, and the reputation of the mill for doing good work is not excelled by any mill in this part of the country. Parties wishing to go into the milling business will find it to their advantage to call on or write to us. No better mill property can be found anywhere.
